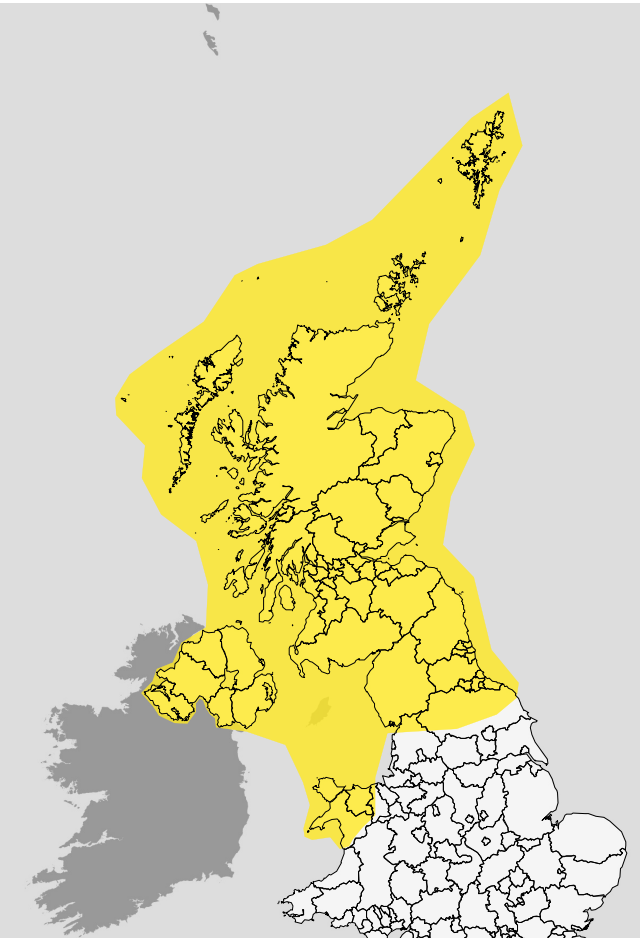
Yellow warning
Wind

Between
06:00 Wed 19 Sep 2018 and
22:00 Wed 19 Sep 2018



Storm Ali will bring a spell of very windy weather with gusts of 50-60 mph possible inland.

What to expect

- Road, rail, air and ferry services may be affected, with longer journey times and cancellations possible
- Some damage to buildings is possible, such as tiles blown from roofs. Falling trees or branches are possible
- Power cuts may occur, with the potential to affect other services, such as mobile phone coverage
- Injuries and danger to life from flying debris
- Some roads and bridges may close

Further details

Strong winds affecting parts of Northern Ireland early in the day will continue to strengthen through the morning and then extend across many parts of Scotland and northern England and northwest Wales. For some exposed areas, in particular parts of western Scotland, gusts could reach in excess of 75 mph in places. There is also an Amber warning for Northern Ireland, parts of Scotland and the far northwest of England. The gusty winds will be accompanied in places by heavy, squally showers, making driving conditions difficult.
